

FIRST THINGS FIRST MONTHLY NEWSLETTER
FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, REGINA
JANUARY 2021

MINISTER'S MESSAGE

As I write this message, we are about to begin the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. Since I am a committed ecumenist who longs for the unity of the whole Christian Church, this is often a high point of the year for me. I look forward to ecumenical gatherings for worship, prayer, and dialogue, and the opportunities to gather with Christian friends and colleagues from many Christian traditions.

Of course, this Week of Prayer for Christian Unity will be different, just as everything has been different during the Covid-19 Pandemic. We won't be able to meet together in our churches, but we will encounter one another online. I'm looking forward to sharing an ecumenical hymn sing from First Church – an offering of singing and praying for the unity of the church – on Sunday, January 17th at 2:30 pm on our FirstPresbyterian Regina Facebook page. Throughout the week, we'll join others across Saskatchewan in an ecumenical Bible study by Zoom. And many of us will participate in a WPCU online service that will be hosted by the Canadian Centre for Ecumenism in Montreal on Sunday, January 24th. (Details about all these opportunities are included later in this newsletter.)

The theme for the 2021 WPCU is based on John 15:5-9 "Abide in my love and you shall bear much fruit." You may remember that this is the passage in which Jesus presents the metaphor of the Vine and the Branches. Christ is the vine, and we are the branches that must abide in him, staying connected to our Lord in order to be fed and strengthened in faith. It is only through our reliance on Jesus that our lives and ministries will bear fruit. Think of the "fruit of the Spirit" that Paul lists as love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, and more.

The Vine and Branches image reminds us that we cannot live and love through our own power alone, that all our ministries flow from Christ's love and power. It also reminds us that when we are connected to Christ, we are also connected to one another. And when we are connected to one another, we are connected to Christ who makes us one and helps us to produce an abundant harvest together.

This year has been difficult in so many ways, and one of the greatest difficulties has been the inability to gather together safely in our Christian communities (whether as congregations or ecumenical gatherings). But we have been learning how to stay connected with each other and with Christ in new and creative ways. We continue to worship, we continue to pray together, we continue to reach out in love and mission to our neighbours, and we even try to extend our reach and make new connections through online ministries.

I am grateful for the ways that the family of First Church has maintained our connections to one another and to God during these difficult months. But I'm also aware that some have drifted away somewhat, whether due to the challenges of navigating online worship, meetings, and other gatherings; because these connections pale in comparison to what it is like to come together in-person; or because you've simply gotten out of the habit of doing church.

So, I want to invite you again today to join in our gatherings. Please do be in touch if I or someone else from the church can help you with technical aspects of joining in online. Or if online meetings just do not work for you, please do read along with our worship services and sermons. Please do phone me, or your elder, or another church friend to connect.

And for those of you who continue to be deeply engaged in our ongoing ministries during these months, consider reaching out to someone that you haven't seen or heard from in a while. Let them know that you are thinking of them, and keep the connections between us that nurture our spirits and link us up with Christ who is the source of our life and hope. In this Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, take a moment to pray for unity between diverse Christians and Churches also, and consider reaching out to a friend from another tradition in love, respect, and acknowledgement that we all belong to God and to one another.

May God strengthen the Vine and all its branches during these months of challenge so that even now our ministries will produce good fruit.

Rev. Amanda Currie

SESSION

In light of the action of the provincial government to extend the current COVID restrictions to the end of January, the Session has decided to extend the suspension of in-person worship and facility rentals until Feb. 4, 2021. A further decision will be made at the Feb. 3 Session meeting.

The Session has approved the designation of January 31 as Legacy Sunday and a special Ash Wednesday service to be held Feb. 17 at 7:00 pm.

Jo Szostak
Clerk of Session

BOARD OF MANAGERS

First Church has received a substantial bequest from the estate of Elizabeth and Larry Kitson. Elizabeth's will stipulates that First is to receive 7% of the estate, which is to be invested with the proceeds supporting the maintenance and repair of the church property. We have received the initial payment (about 2/3 of the total) of $173,609.54. These funds have been invested with Connor, Clark and Lunn in a new fund titled "Property Endowment". Any income earned in that fund will be transferred into the existing Property Fund.

Givings and Envelopes

The pandemic has changed the way we do many things! Our offerings have continued to be strong and we thank everyone in the congregation for their generous givings! Many of you have turned to e-transfers, which are quick and easy to complete online. To send an e-transfer, just choose Interac Transfer in your online banking and send it to firstpresreginaoffering@gmail.com (with "What street is the church on?" as the security question.) Some of you have set up automatic withdrawals through the PAR program, so that your offering automatically comes out of your account once a month. If you are interested in that, please contact Shirley in the church office. Others in the congregation send cheques by mail, or drop them off at the church, and these contributions are appreciated as well. For those of you who are using the paper offering envelopes, we do have the 2021 envelopes, as we purchase them early in the year. But the church was closed before we had a chance to set them out for pickup. You can pick up your envelopes from Shirley in the church office - just contact her to make an arrangement. Or, if you would like them mailed out, we can do that. We won't be mailing them all out, but once the church re-opens, we will set them out for pickup.

Jo Szostak

MISSION & OUTREACH COMMITTEE

Many thanks to First Church folks for your generosity towards others through our Advent In Memoriam initiative. Contributions to Regina's Indigenous Christian Fellowship totalled $922.50 and our Refugee Sponsorship Fund grew by $1617.50. That is a wonderful response!

FELLOWSHIP COMMITTEE

B.I.N.G.O! ...and we have a winner! Mark your calendars! The Fellowship Committee is hosting a Bingo and Games night on Friday, January 29 at 7pm. Get rid of those January blahs and plan to join us for a "Zoom along" Bingo and Games night.

We will e-mail you the link for the Bingo sheets and you can print as many as you like. Just rip up pieces of paper, use old pennies or markers of any kind to cover your squares. If you don't have a printer and can't print the Bingo sheet, but would like to join in the fun on Zoom, please let us know by calling Shirley at the office (306) 522-9571 and we will make arrangements for you to get them. Plan on bringing your favourite beverage and snack to enjoy while the games are on. Hope to see lots of you there.

Sheila Wilson
Fellowship Committee Convener

SCHOLARSHIP COMMITTEE

The Scholarship Committee (Jim Doolittle, Chair; Sandra Fyffe, Ron Pugsley, Alfred Ferozdin and Andrew Donovan) would normally try to distribute at least some of the awards in-person at a designated Sunday service, but of course that simply was not possible this year.

The following are individuals to whom we awarded scholarships and their respective programs:

- Nyabani Mathiang, University of Regina, Faculty of Nursing (2nd year)
- Gabe Omolida, University of Regina, Faculty of Music (4th year)
- Matthew Yakemchuk, University of Regina, Faculty of Business Administration (2nd year)

CHRISTMAS EVE LIVESTREAM

Thanks to everyone who participated in our Christmas Season worship services and hymn sings. We appreciate the efforts of the musicians, singers, readers, and tech people who made the services possible, as well as Shirley Durell (our Office Administrator) who put together bulletins and PowerPoint slides. Besides the small group that could gather in the church to lead worship, we were blessed with the online presence and prayer of the members of First Church, their families, friends, and others across the province and the country who were able to join us in celebrating the birth of Jesus -

Emmanuel, God with us. These are just two photos from the Christmas Eve Service.

If you missed it, you can still find it on the FirstPresbyterian Facebook Page or at <https://curriejesson.ca/online-christmas-pageant/> These are just a few photos from the Pageant, which was titled "A Pandemic Christmas."

WEEK OF PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY

WPCU Bible Study 2021 A daily Bible study on the theme of the 2021 Week of Prayer for Christian Unity.

Monday, January 18 to Monday, January 25
from 12:15-1:00pm CST (except Sunday, Jan. 24 at 1:00pm CST)

Register at <https://www.eventbrite.ca/e/wpcu-bible-study-2021-tickets-135920448721>

Hosted by the Prairie Centre for Ecumenism and the Regina Council of Churches, this study is free and open to all. A different Christian leader will guide us each day as we explore the theme "Abide in my love and you shall bear much fruit" (John 15:5-9).

The 2021 theme calls us to pray and to work for reconciliation and unity in the church, with our human family, and with all of creation. Drawing on the Gospel image of vine and branches, it invites us to nourish unity with God and with one another through contemplative silence, prayer, and common action. Grafted into Christ the vine as many diverse branches, may we bear rich fruit and create new ways of living, with respect for and communion with all of creation.

A Prayer ~ Norman Shanks

God of ever-new beginnings,
God in whom past, present and future
perpetually coalesce,
as a new year unfolds before us,
through the dark days of January,
through the vagaries of the weather,
though storm, flood, ice or snow may unsettle us,
though personal difficulties may beset us,
help us always to remember that your light shines through the deepest darkness,
that your love surrounds and summons us,
that your life is stronger than death itself,
and that your grace sustains us
and is sufficient for all our needs. Amen.
